THE D-SPACE EXPERIMENTAL AREA RETURNS TO PALAKISS

Italian and Persian designers protagonists at Vicenza
(Via dell'Oreficeria, 31 – Vicenza)

Vicenza, January 18, 2020 – Lively creativity, research materials, craftsmanship are the protagonists in the "D-space" area, an experimental section designed by Palakiss to bring the b2b world closer to the world of contemporary jewelry. New frontiers for a young and evolved consumer, looking for alternative proposals in the world of precious accessories.

Among the protagonists of the 2020 edition of Winter there will be Italian and international designers who will present fashion jewels made of silver, gold, precious and semi-precious stones, alternative materials.

New trends that materialize in the innovative collections of Finnys Design with its "contemporary bijoux" made with rubber, industrial elements, copper and brass pipes, fragments of vintage Murano chandeliers, mixed with semi-precious and semi-precious stones.

Creative contaminations also from Spira Mirabilis Gioielli, jewelry in 925 silver thread handmade by the Florentine Francesca Grevi, enriched with natural mineral stones, shells, sea stones, rohdoid, fabrics, yarns and precious leathers.

There will also be silver jewelry of timeless elegance by Debra Gioielli conceived with a design that combines innovation and craftsmanship, and unique pieces by Mauby & Wood made of wood, resin and soft metals. Also evocative is the hyperrealism of the silver jewelry with skulls, handmade by X - Decem Venice, which draws inspiration from the most seductive side of a mysterious Venice.

And for the first time at Palakiss, JewelryAround is the protagonist of a real jewelry blog, founded in Milan in 2016 by Sogand Nobahar, which over time has become an interesting virtual showcase for young Persian contemporary artists and designers. Palakiss Spa
